Obituary

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever. -Psalm 23

Ethelrene George was born on October 31, 1911 to Alvin and Cynthia Hogue. She was known as "Muddear" to all of her grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren. She was blessed to live 96 years on this earth. Her body had grown very weak and tired, so The Heavenly Angels visited Central Mississippi Medical Center on Friday, June 27, 2008 and called her home to be with the LORD.

She was educated in Yazoo County in Bentonia, MS. Many years ago, she was a member of Friendship Missionary Baptist Church.

She was married to Joseph Brown and to this union three children were born: Eddie B., Berniece and Mary Edna.

Ethelrene George was preceded in death by her parents, Alvin and Cynthia Hogue; brothers, Lee and Alvin; sisters: Hattie, Mary, Alberta, Lillie Mae and Maggie; son, Eddie B. Brown; and grandsons, Johnny Brown and Henry Woodard.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories: two daughters, Berniece Brown and Mary Edna Woodard, both of Jackson, MS; one brother, Norman Hogue of Boling Brook, IL; 12 grandchildren: Lee, Alma, Dinah, Lorene, Eddie, John, Ethel, Joseph, Mary, Robert, Tracy and Andrea; 30 great-grandchildren, 25 great-great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.
