Obituary

“And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.”

Revelation 14:13

Bro. Johnny E. Bingham, the son of the late Will T. Bingham, Sr. and Cleo Bingham, was born in Jackson, Mississippi. He was born January 17, 1956. He was raised by Mrs. Georgia Mae Harvey of Windell, MS. He attended Terry High School. Shortly after, he married Gloria Mallet of Terry and to this union two children were born.

Bro. Johnny was employed by Calamine Foods for a number of years, was a painter and a man of many trades. He was a very faithful member of New Testament Church and a very devoted brother in Christ Jesus, always ready and available to do the will of God.

He departed this life on April 13, 2008 at 6:00 at his home in Terry, MS. He was preceded in death by his mother that raised him, Mrs. Georgia M. Harvey, his maternal mother, Cleo Bingham, his father, Will T. Bingham, Sr., brother, Eddie Bingham and sister, Liza Bingham.

He leaves to cherish his memories, two daughters: Demetrice (Roger) Moore of Terry, MS and Jenessa Washington of Bolton, MS; three sons: Cedric Bingham of Terry, MS, Kenny Earl of Jackson, MS and Jonathan Barber of Bolton, MS; three brothers: David (Linda) Bingham and Tommy Bingham both of Bolton, MS and Will T. (Sarah) Bingham, Jr. of Jackson, MS; one sister, Dorothy Williams of Jackson, MS; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends and his New Testament Church family.
