Obituary

On the day of December 13, 1962, the Lord blessed Carrie Lucille Hughes Benson and L.J. Benson with a daughter whom they named Ora Mae Benson. "Choo Choo" as everyone called her, accepted Christ through baptism at a very young age.

Ora Mae attended and graduated from Florence High School. She then attended Phillips Business College, where she was an honor student. She later decided her calling was taking care of the neighborhood children. Even though she had no children of her own, she treated each child in her care as her own.

On the evening of June 29, 2008, the Lord needed another angel and decided to call her home.

She was preceded in death by her loving parents, L.J. Benson and Carrie Lucille Hughes Benson; two brothers: William Henry and Horace Edward Hughes and one sister, Patricia Ann Benson.

She leaves to cherish her memories one brother, Terry (Ruby) Benson of Brandon, MS; one sister, Minnie Louise Erby of St. Louis, Missouri; maternal aunt, Bobbie Jean (Author) Trotter of Clarksdale, MS; maternal uncle, Roosevelt (Ola) Hughes of Memphis, TN; also a host of nieces, nephews, other family members and friends. Rev. Ronnie and Demetra Brown and their two sons (Ronnie, Jr. and Roy Jerrel) have always been a very special part of this family.
